- ▶ Eagle Mount is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization based on a 10 acre campus in Bozeman, Montana
- ▶ Incorporated January, 1982
- ▶ Employer ID# 84-1383214
- ▶ Each year Eagle Mount serves more than 1,400 participants with the help of more than 1,200 volunteers.
- ▶ Eagle Mount programs for people with disabilities and for young people fighting cancer currently serve participants from eight southwest Montana counties and most of the United States. Eagle Mount programs are available to any individual who qualifies, regardless of their place of residence.
- ▶ Funding for Eagle Mount's programs comes solely from individual and business donations, Eagle Mount is not a United Way agency and does not receive government funding.

In 1982, General Robert Mathis and his wife, Greta, retired from a 34 year career in the Air Force to bring a family dream to reality. That was to create a place where people with disabilities could enjoy quality recreational opportunities. They came to Montana and established Eagle Mount.

Over the years thousands of children and adults with disabilities, and young people fighting cancer, have been served. Through skiing, horseback riding, aquatic therapy, and many other programs, participants have found self-confidence and independence and have achieved the previously unthinkable.

Today, Eagle Mount creates unparalleled therapeutic recreation opportunities. Your legacy will help continue these remarkable programs, making it forever possible for participants to enjoy the uplifting challenge and exhilaration of therapeutic recreation and to:

"... mount up with wings as eagles." Isaiah 40:31

As an Eagle Mount supporter, you have shown your personal commitment to enriching and forever changing the lives of people with disabilities and young people fighting cancer. Today we are asking you to consider a different type of support ... a special gift to Eagle Mount through your estate plans.

Have you given thought to what you would like your legacy to be? What kind of world you want this to be? What kind of community? Eagle Mount has always served as a vehicle for personal expression and community development.

The purpose of Eagle Mount goes far beyond the physical and emotional benefits of therapeutic recreation. It is a safe haven for people to share the very best part of themselves, the light in their soul. It lifts the human spirit to new heights. Eagle Mount is living proof of each and every person's ability to bring about community and human transformation through the simple and powerful gift of caring.

Working on your estate plans today can bring you the peace of mind of knowing that your wishes and interests are recorded and will be followed. If you are so kind to include Eagle Mount in your plans, you will have the added satisfaction of knowing that others, in the future, will benefit from your generous act of today.

The Wings of Eagles Legacy Society (WELS) recognizes supporters who support Eagle Mount's mission in perpetuity by naming Eagle Mount in their will or estate plans.

As a WELS member, and in acknowledgement of your very special commitment to bettering the lives of people in need you will receive a handsome gold "eagle's wings" lapel pin, be invited to attend members only events, and will receive the Eagle Mount Annual Report in which you will be formally thanked.*

If you haven't begun an estate plan, you're not unusual. Preparing your plan doesn't have to be complicated. Here are some steps to help you begin:

First: Gather information about your assets including real property, bank accounts, retirement funds, and insurance policies.

Second: Think about the people and organizations that matter the most to you and how you would like to provide for them.

Third: Decide who will be your executor.

Fourth: Meet with an estate planning professional. If you don't have an attorney, the local American Bar Association can suggest someone. Or the Eagle Mount Planned Giving Officer would be happy to find a referral for you.

"WELS MEMBERS ARE SOME OF OUR MOST DEDICATED SUPPORTERS AND HAVE OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE."
